Class Tuition Terms and Conditions

1. Alliance Française d'Oxford does not offer refunds but credit notes. Missed classes will not be refunded but may be credited at the discretion of the Board.
2. Should AFOxford, in exceptional circumstances, have to cancel a class, this class will be either credited or refunded.
3. AFOxford reserves the right to appoint new tutors to classes and clubs as and when appropriate.
4. Students should mention at the time of their registration the dates at which they cannot attend the scheduled classes and these sessions - to a maximum of three – will be tagged-on. After the registration, only one extra session can be rescheduled if missed. This is in order to minimise the disruption caused to tutors and students.

Private Tuition

First we assess your current level in French, and then we design a tuition programme around your particular objectives. We will do our utmost to follow your preferences in terms of schedule and pace of tuition.

Private Tuition Terms and Conditions

1. Alliance Française d'Oxford does not offer refunds but credit notes.
2. Private tuition courses are scheduled to finish at the date agreed at the time of registration.
3. Should a postponement at this date be required, students must agree a new end-date for their booking by sending their request in writing to the registrar (the maximum extension period available is six weeks), failing which the School is under no obligation to continue tuition beyond the initially agreed date.
4. A notice of 24 to 48 hours is required for tuition to be rearranged; otherwise payment will be due in lieu of notice.
